While I was back in Colorado, I shared about the challenges presented by using public transportation the last 7 years and the desire to have a vehicle to facilitate this evolving ministry. Many of you responded with prayer and others responded with financial gifts making it possible for me to purchase this 2011 Nissan Almera and prepare the garage for it to use. Many thanks! This whole process provided many opportunities to trust that God would provide me with an appropriate vehicle. One of the cars I was interested in confirmed the trust that Fr. Felix had in the mechanic he referred me to. Not only did he not recommend that car because of a prior accident, he turned down the money offered him by the sellers to convince me to buy the car. I'm in the process of getting used to driving here now and pray that God gives me the wisdom and reactions necessary when out on the roads!

Classes have been underway since the beginning of January. I've got one class and it's a good group of students! This picture is of some of my students learning the challenges that visual perceptual changes present for people. Additionally, I began contact at the local public hospital to further the idea to work with in-patients in need of physical therapy. While God guided me to start with the current therapy staff, who serve out-patients, they weren't interested in changing anything. When a door closes, God opens a window. This window is with the orthopedic physicians treating at this hospital. The doctor I spoke with was thrilled with the idea and I am getting oriented to how things work with the department there. Please pray that I continue to listen to God's guidance as I become familiar with the systems at the hospital and learn how best to help these patients.

Thank you for your prayers, financial gifts and encouragement for this ministry! May you feel God's peace and grace in your heart every day!

In Christ,
Cathy
